

Diabetic Ulcer / Case 1

- Male aged 63 years
- Diabetes mellitus Type II since 1994. Currently treated with the combination of fast- and long-acting insulin
- Follow-up and treatment at the multidisciplinary diabetic foot and wound clinic since 2004
- Prolonged wound healing after a big and second toe amputation and development of diabetic ulcer of the head of the first metatarsal (Figure 1)
- Abilar 10% Resin Salve treatment was initiated in November 2014 and salve was applied once a day
- The situation of the ulcer after 1 month's treatment by using Abilar 10% Resin Salve (Figure 2)

